The Appomattox Chamber of Commerce held a dinner meeting at Maude's Restaurant on Thursday evening, June 29, at 7:00 p. m. Wives and Husbands of the members of the Chamber of Commerce were guests at the dinner meeting.

W. W. Blythe, President of the Appomattox Chamber, told the group that the lack of money was the number one problem facing the Appomattox C of C today. The possibility of a larger membership fee was discussed.

"Wooden Nickles" were given those present for the meeting, courtesy of the Spring Mill Museum.

Back On The Trail Of Gypsy Moth

County Forester Warren Taylor displays one of the dixie-cup shaped gypsy moth traps that are being put out at various places throughout the county. The gypsy moth is a dangerous pest to trees in the Northeastern United States, which continues to threaten the nation's hardwood trees. Forester Taylor, attaching one of the traps to a tree, explains that inside the cup is a small bit of cotton saturated with a chemical attractive to gypsy moths, or attractive, in fact, that it will draw these moths from a distance of one-quarter of a mile.

Traps have been put out at the National Park, Wayside Picnic Areas, private camp grounds and along public highways. So far there are no gypsy moths here but Taylor says they will be checking traps from time to time to make sure none come into our area.

Forester Taylor asks that any one in Appomattox County who is planning on traveling North to please inspect their cars, trucks, trailers and other camping equipment to be sure you do not bring any gypsy moths or eggs back home with you.

New APACHE Dealer

Lawson Ford, Inc., according to Mr. Dick Bland, Vice-President, is now the newly authorized APACHE dealer for Appomattox County.

Game time for Wednesday, Thursday and Friday will be 7:30 p. m. and there will be a double header on Saturday night with the first game at 6:30 p.m. and the second game is scheduled to begin at 8:00 p. m. These games are played at the Woodmen of the World Ball Field.

Sponsors Donkey Ball Game

Donkey Ball, the world's craziest sport comes to Appomattox on July 11, 1972, 8 p.m. This ball game played from the backs of trained Donkeys is reputed to be wilder than a Rodeo and Funnier than a Circus. The event will be held at the W.O.W. Little League Field.

For the game the Spout Spring Ruritan Club have obtained the services of the Nationally known Buckeye Donkey Ball Company, Columbus, Ohio.

All local riders will be used for the exhibition and the local boys have gone into serious training for the big event. The Spout Spring Ruritan Club, who will compete, have announced that their players are on a strict diet of Mother's Oats and raw carrots.

Several of our local druggists announced on hearing of the game that they are increasing their supply of liniment in anticipation of the large increase in business the morning after the game.

The Ruritan Club will be opposed by the Appomattox County Jaycees.

Tickets are now on sale and can be obtained from members of the Spout Spring Ruritan Club. Mr. Curtis Wooten who is in charge of ticket sales reports a brisk advance sale as the capacity of the W.O.W. Field is limited get your tickets as soon as possible and avoid disappointment of not being able to get in on the night of the game.

Abbitt Opposes Food Stamps For Striking Workers

WASHINGTON - Representative Watkins M. Abbitt (D-Va.) called recently for a prohibition against the use of food stamps to subsidize striking workers.

In a speech in the House, the Fourth District Congressman said issuance of food stamps to strikers is "completely inconsistent" with the purpose of the food stamp act and said he does not see "how any logical administration of the program can be carried out with the full knowledge that many of the stamps are going to persons who would not need them other than because they are participating in strike actions."

Abbitt points out that "the Food Stamp Program was designed to provide an additional means of raising the nutritional level for the less fortunate. We thought we extended the benefits of this program to those who through no fault or action of their own were not able to obtain adequate diet. It was never intended originally to extend the program to those who by their own choice, or by the choice of their group, decided to get out of work. No one questions the right to strike. That is a protected legal right available to all workers in his country. I question however, the wisdom of the Federal Government subsidizing the members of a union which decides to go out on strike."

Abbitt said under the present program approximately $238,-000,000 in food stamps will be issued to strikers during 1973, and called upon the House "to rectify this atrocious situation by adopting clear and unmistakable language to prohibit the use of food stamps in this connection.

The Virginia Congressman said several studies have convincingly shown that distribution of food stamps to strikers "has had a direct bearing upon the increase in the number of strikes." He said that there were 200 strikes in 1960 which lasted more than 30 days while in 1971 there were more than 375 such strikes. "We should not be in the position of subsidizing major strikes through the Food Stamp Program and, if this is allowed to continue unchecked, the entire program may eventually be in jeopardy," he said.

Abbitt, who is dean of the Virginia Delegation in Congress and a high ranking member of the House Agriculture Committee, led a fight in 1970 to include in the basic Food Stamp legislation a prohibition against issuance of food stamps to households which need assistance solely because a member is participating in a strike. Although the Abbitt amendment lost by a narrow margin, efforts have been made several times since to attach such a rider to the Agriculture Appropriations Bill.

Trophies Awarded State Police

In an Intra-Department Safety Program conducted by the Virginia Division of State Police to help promote safe driving, Division III of the State Police has won two trophies for 1971.

Captain Curtis L. Wilson, head of Division III headquarters in Appomattox, stands by the trophies awarded them. The trophy on the left is first place award presented the members of Division III for safe driving and the award on the right was presented to the members of Division III for having the fewest chargeable accidents in 1971.

Community Canneries Opened July 5th

The Communtiy Canneries in Appomattox and in Pamplin opened Wednesday, July 5th, and will remain open Mondays through Fridays throughout the summer.

The canneries will open at 8:00 a.m. each week day and remain open until 5:00 p.m. All foods to be processed must be in the cannery no later than 1:30 p.m.

Patrons are asked to bring towels, seasonings, knives and all other equipment needed in preparing their foods for processing.

Prices for the cans this year will be ten cents each for the No. 2 1/2 can and nine cents for the No. 303 can.

In previous years, the canneries had opened on July 1st, but new boilers had to be installed and some other repairs to the canneries had to be completed so the opening had to be delayed a few days.

Last year both the Appomattox and the Pamplin Canneries had one of the largest and most successful years they have ever had and the management feels that they can look forward to another successful season this year. Prospects are good for the fruit and vegetable crops.

More Appliances In Local Homes

NEW YORK - June 10 - Appomattox County homes are better equipped today, with more of the conveniences of modern living, than they were in 1960.

The number of automobiles, stereophonic units, clothes dryers, dishwashers, air conditioners, electric blankets and the like that are in service is much greater than then.

The big - ticket items that were bought by local families since 1960 were acquired for the most part prior to the last two or three years, when many people, disturbed by high taxes and rising costs, put the brakes on unnecessary spending.

What made possible the purchases of these additional appliances was better earnings. Incomes in the area advanced faster than the cost of living.

Figures showing the change that has taken place since 1960 in ownership of household equipment are based upon a sample survey made by the commerce Department and upon data from other sources.

The rising proportion of two-car families is one sign of better living. In Appomattox County, it appears, no less than 26.-7 percent of the households have two cars or more. This compares with 17.8 percent in 1960.

Similarly, food freezers as well as refrigerators are now to be found in more local homes than ever before. Approximately 85.9 percent of the families in the local regional area now own them.

As for television sets, they have become an accepted fact in most Appomattox County homes, in 93.0 percent of them last year there was at least one
